Monday, October 19th at 11:25 a.m. Crystal called and said she was at the VA emergency room and would not be in. I said okay.

Tuesday, October 20th at 11:30a.m. Crystal called said she was sick and she did not know when she would be in, that her doctor felt that she was not ready to return back to work.

You and I asked her to fax a Doctor statement letting us know when she would be able to return back to work. I gave her the fax # in our area.
